About Fork Union Military Academy

Fork Union Military Academy is one of the nation's leading college preparatory military schools for boys in grades 6 to 12 and postgraduate (grades 8-12 only in Summer Session). Nationally known for its emphasis on Christian values, top quality academics, and superior athletic programs, the school remains true to its motto of "Body, Mind, and Spirit."

The school was founded in 1898 by Dr. William E. Hatcher, a prominent Baptist minister whose summer home, Careby Hall, was in the village of Fork Union. In 1913, the school began receiving support from the Baptist General Association of Virginia, a partnership maintained to this day.

The Academy accepts boarding and day students and maintains an enrollment of more than 500 students each academic year in the Upper and Middle Schools. The Academy also accepts postgraduate students seeking to improve their academic or athletic performance in preparation for entry to college.

More than 100 years after its founding, Fork Union Military Academy continues to fulfill its mission and to help young men achieve their own measure of success.
