

Uniform, Clothing & Supply Information for Returning Cadets

- Before you return, ascertain your needs by checking all clothing for proper fit and serviceability.
- Do not bring back items that are worn, frayed, soiled or too small.
- A uniform check will be made during the opening days to insure that all cadets have items as indicated on the check list with special attention to the proper fit of dress jacket, trousers, and shirts.
- You are reminded that proper FUMA athletic items will be worn when engaging in intramural or recreational activities.
- When reporting to the Supply Center, procure all items you need the first time through.
- Uniform Account (Mandatory) -- This account is required for all cadets, and will be charged as necessary to maintain proper uniform attire for each cadet. Note: There are also charges for additional uniform articles such as insignia for cadet rank, ribbons, pins, patches, shoulder cords, etc. These charges will be applied to your Uniform Account as they arise. Parental authorization is not necessary for this account.
- Do not purchase items you do not need.
- Cadets should report with a military haircut to insure proper fitting of caps.
- Pillows and extra blankets must be brought from home. They are not available in the Supply Center.
- Handkerchiefs, towels, washcloths, t-shirts, and undershorts must be white.
- The Quartermaster Department does not take returns of unused items for credit.
- Check this list of required items, determine your needs, and bring the list with you on Reporting Day
